

Blue Cafe, Buena

If I ever have to leave, then it doesn't matter
where I go now,
I'll be your love
baby, if you let me breathe even when I'm far away then I have no doubt
I'll be your love

nothing guarantee
I want to believe in love now
but I don't know how what, what, what I want to try is to find a map of your soul now your soul now, honey

De Alto Cedro voy para Marcané
Llego a Cueto voy para Mayarí...

if you'll gonna wait for me I can guarantee that I'll be your love I have no doubt (no doubt) baby, I don't really know where the road is leading me but I have no doubt I'll be your love (your love)

nothing guarantee
is to find a map to your soul now
your soul now, honey

De Alto Cedro voy para Marcané

I can only be on my way to nowhere You were stopping me but i said I don't care When is the time 4 us maybe not in this life we will not win this fight when the wanna time right

So I'm taking my journey to the past baby that's the best baby that's the last one step i take a one two three when I'm in the same place you know I can't breathe ahh ahh yeah so...

That's my own journey
into the crazy time
I think I'm really really gonna lose my mind coz we r so far apart and there's no way
for new start for us

So that's my way to nowhere north and east, south or west I wonder if somebody gonna pass this test so baby fk this life r we gonna survive?

I wanted somebody, I needed somebody I wanted somebody to lean on I wanted somebody, I wanted, I wanted I need somebody to hold on

I am still on the way someday I'm going to stay can you hear the pain in my voice?
I am breaking my chain,
Do you feel the same?
can you hear the pain in my song?

De Alto Cedro voy para Marcané
Llego a Cueto voy para Mayarí...
