

Blue October, Darkest Side Of Houston's Finest Day

He's scared
Her ship arrived and came in yesterday
The darkest side of Houston's finest day
You fell asleep, my love
And i fantasize
That the wind blew harder than it ever did
This song we started, will it ever end
You fell asleep again

Well goodbye
With shaking hands I dropped it instantly
Then kicked the phone and stood invincibly
Oh, then started to cry
But i'm twenty now
And I wanna see my nineteenth year again
Hold on to me, you are the closest thing i've ever had
To a real friend
To a real friend, friend, friend
