

Blue October, I Remember It Too

You said "Always" and I said "Yeah"
(Just) Like a movie ending the day
Will we walk together and down that road
Finding "paradise" in the haze
It's gone two in the morning
With all hope slip
Sliding around our blues
Don't show me no "cul de sac"
When we've both got something to lose

Sometimes, I remember it too
Get a glimpse of you
Sometimes, I remember it too
Catch a breath of you
Sometimes, I remember it too...

One man's fallen, the women's saved
How they've both had loving to burn
Hands so close to an only flame
They've got an age old lesson to learn
It's gone five in the morning
I feel the warm air rising up out the blue
And are tears laying cross the land
Just an early morning dew?

Sometimes, I remember it too
Get a glimpse of you
Sometimes, I remember it too
Catch a breath of you
Sometimes, I remember it too...
