Blue October, Sweet And Somber Pigeon Wings

The sweet and somber pigeon wings, cant we all recall when MaMa and PaPa, were the sweet tooth Christmas Ball.
A Picturesque holiday family.
Of course I was small and all i knew was my Grandpa, But I really didn't know him at all.

My blood, my cousins my calvary.

A piece of them gone but still I feel them strong,
When I reach for Daivid 'cuz our Grandpa is gone.
I shout out.... I got love for the family.
My Mother's a da\oll and my Father can stop any brawl,
Pucker up I'd like to kiss you all.

Open your eyes... a new song 'cuz the family's wrong, So don't lecture me.
But as far as I can see, the stepmom, yeah the widow's palm is what's crushing me, and this family.
Beyond my time I's beyond my time
