Blue Rodeo, You're Everywhere

yeah I gave you my heart and I gave you my soul that's not enough you want more like the writing on an ancient wall you're a mystery that I'll never solve yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me for me well I've walked along the red canal of mars I've known kings and king makers poets painters and paupers I've danced danced on the rings of saturn still your pilgrim soul is the only thing that ever mattered yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me for me

Rock it!

yeah this old world ain't always what it seems sometimes I feel I'm living in someone else's dream there's a face I know that I've never seen still a hundred million miles ten thousand years ain't going to change a thing yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me for me yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
