

Blue Six, All I Need

you never have to lie don't build a wall and hide behind it let's see what we can find let me show you what i like

don't waste another night let's build a dream and live inside it don't be afraid to fly baby, show me what you like

all i want baby
is to have enough
all i need angel
is someone to trust
all i fear sugar
is to care too much
all i need baby
is to know i'm loved

i want us to be right to have our hearts both come alive here i pray our dreams survive baby, give your love tonight
