

Blue System, You Are Lyin'

You are lyin', lyin', lyin', lyin'
Baby, why are you breaking my heart?
You are cryin', cryin', cryin', cryin'
Baby, when I'm tearing apart
You are lyin', lyin', lyin', lyin'
Baby, why are you breaking my heart?
You are cryin', cryin', cryin', cryin'
Baby, when I'm tearing apart
Yes, you said we are two ships passing through the night
But you know on a night like this I'm sitting here alone
Where are those dreams you promised me, my love?
I'm so scared of loneliness
And no one cared about what I'm thinking
But I hear you knockin' at my door
And nothing hurts forever
And you said I'm lyin' - you really think that I'm lyin' to you?
You are lyin', lyin', lyin', lyin'
(Babe, I'm lyin')
Baby, why are you breaking my heart?
You are cryin', cryin', cryin', cryin'
(Babe, I'm cryin')
Baby, when I'm tearing apart
Oh, it's raining - oh, it's raining in my heart
And I'm running back to you
Oh, I'm playing - playing just a dirty part
I will never make you blue
Yes, you said to me that you're jealous
And that I'm fooling around with other girls
But you know, when a love goes wrong nothing goes right
Every night I'm running around and they scandalize my name
And no one cared about what I'm thinking - no one cared about me
But how many times can we say goodbye - one day it's over
And you said I'm lyin' - you really think that I'm lyin' to you
