

Blues Pills, Birthday

i'm gonna ruin someone's birthday there's people talking in a new way in the streets the wheels are screeching on the ground i don't care what you say i'm gonna do it my way in the heat the people dancing to the sound i'm gonna pour it up and light it all on fire and i won't deny myself from my desire

i know, i know you want the show i just don't give a damn no more i got a new disease inside my bones who cares, who cares what you've been told i just don't give a damn no more i lost the only thing worth fighting for i've only been here for a few days somebody get me out of this place i can't breathe these cameras pointing down my face you left me with an empty pocket gave me a cheeky little chocolate oh that liquor had a bitter after taste i'm gonna pour it out and leave without a trace

you masochistic dinosaur don't want you in my head no more i hope you get a virus or choke on your damn chili sauce i'll leave you to your stupid thoughts cause by tomorrow i'll be gone honestly! wtf!

i know, i know you want the show
yeah, i lost the only thing worth fighting for
