

Blues Traveler, Carry Me Home

Guess I'll be leaving
On the next train
I woke out this morning
And it started to rain
Mean old woman
Gone and left me alone
Where the spirit leads me
Gonna carry me home
Gonna carry me home
Gonna carry me home
Gonna carry me home
Gonna carry

Something's faded

Just one more day
You're gonna have to knock me down
Gonna have to come and drag me away
Good God bad women
Gonna lead me to roam
When that's done, yeah, when that's done
Gonna come carry me home
When that's done, when I'm done
Gonna have to carry me home
Carry me home
Have to carry me home
Carry me
Carry me
Carry me
