

Blues Traveler, Eventually

I'm not the kind that hurries
Sometimes I wish I could
In fact I tried
I almost died
Like it would be any good
But like the best molasses
I like to stay up late
And sweeter is the slower torture
While I can barely wait

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come around
Eventually
If you'd wait with me
Eventually
I'll come around

Once in a tasty moment
I opened both my eyes
I coulda lingered here forever
Though I didn't last the night
But me and you we know for real
That moments come and go
And there's more to them in how you feel
So you should too you know

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come around
Eventually yeah
Eventually yeah
Eventually yeah
I'll come

Eventually yeah
Eventually yeah
Eventually yeah
I'll come around
If you wait for me yeah
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come
