

Blues Traveler, Eventually (I'll Come Around)

I'm not the kind who hurrys
As sometimes I wish I could
In fact I tried
I almost died
Life wouldn't be any good

And like the best mollassas
I like to stay up late
And sweeter is the slower torture
And i can barely wait

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come around

Eventually
If you wait for me
Eventually
Ill come around

Want to taste the moment
I open up my eyes
Couldn't linger here forever
Although thats not from lack of tryin'

But you and me we know for real
That moments come and go
And theres more to that in how you feel
So you should too you know

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come around

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come

Eventually
Eventually
Eventually
I'll come around

Eventually
Just you wait and see
Eventually
I'll come
