

Blues Traveler, Stumble And Fall

Breathe
It's better than nothing

Believe
Like I know you can fly
Straight through the light now
Hold on
I'm your man
And oh it's a strange world
But to you it still belongs
And I've got a plan
Should you stumble and fall

Keep your arms out
And I will swing for you
Take my hand
And feel free

Smile
You are surviving

C'mon
I'll help you up
And oh it's a strange world
Step up to see it all
And I've got a plan
Should you stumble and fall

Keep your arms out
And I will swing for you
Take my hand
And feel free
Take my hand
And feel free

I know it's not like you need me
Believe me I know
I'm not that tough

And oh since you have me
I'll be there should you call
And I've got a plan
Should you stumble and fall

Keep your arms out
And I will swing for you
Take my hand
And feel free
Keep your arms out
And I will swing for you
Take my hand
And feel free
