

Blues Traveler, With You

Music & lyrics: John Popper

Forgive me this intrusion, please forgive me this cardinal sin
But I have to inform you how lucky you happen to be There's an army behind you no matter the trouble you're in
And if it isn't an army, well I'm sure that at least you have me

There are times when it seems like
Your dreams have come to an end
They're the times right before you remember
That you've got a friend
A part of me will be with you wherever you go
And I guess this is my cute little way of letting you know
You see I know sometimes it's enough to drive you insane
But no matter the pressure you're under, no matter the pain
With some luck and some laughter we'll get through
Because forever after I am with you
With you
Oh with you
With you

Late night summer sunrise comes to mind whenever I think of you
There's fear in your eyes and a satisfied smile on your face
You're my friend and I love you
I'm entertained and scared by the things you do
A heart full of laughter that none on this earth could replace

There are times when it seems like
Your dreams have come to an end

They're the times right before you remember
That you've got a friend
A part of me will be with you wherever you go
And I guess this is my cute little way of letting you know
You see I know sometimes it's enough to drive you insane
But no matter the pressure you're under, no matter the pain
With some luck and some laughter we'll get through because forever after I am with you
With you
Oh with you
With you
In closing all I can say is try not to look for an answer
Life and it's logic tend to dance and to always rearrange
I'm sure you'll be fine in every sense you're a hell of a dancer
Besides I'm with you and that's one thing that will never change

There are times when it seems like
Your dreams have come to an end
They're the times right before you remember
That you've got a friend
A part of me will be with you wherever you go
And I guess this is my cute little way of letting you know
You see I know sometimes it's enough to drive you insane
But no matter the pressure you're under, no matter the pain
With some luck and some laughter we'll get through
Because forever after I am with you
With you
Oh with you
With you
