

Blutengel, Vampire romance

You're running through the darkness
We don't need no light
You're looking for a place to hide
We protect you from the cold
Your life seems so meaningless
We satisfy Your dreams
You search for a gate to a better life
You just need to take my hand
There's so much beauty in our world
Beauty of the night
There's so much pleasure in our world
Pleasure of the night
We're drowning in a sea of blood
Sacrifice your life
We have the gift of eternal existence
Sacrifice your soul
We try to catch you in the dark
With a certain kind of kiss
We invite you to the darker side
A kingdom without light
We try to catch you in the night
The moon shines in a different light
We see into your fragile eyes
No more time to cry
We try to catch you in the dark
With a certain kind of kiss
We invite you to the darker side
A kingdom without light
Can't you see our burning souls
We hide a secret deep inside
We show you pleasures without pain
Take our gift this night
