

Bixst, About You

Aye

I need you to be about we
If you put a limit on your love then count me
Girl I know my selfish ways be OD (sheee)
But I just express in ways you don't see

Yeah

Yeah

And you should know that I'm about you
If this ain't the way to love then show me how to Cause I'm not afraid of breaking all rules
I say what I say I don't say it to sound cool

And I'm not the type to settle up
You know my level up
Nothing bout me regular
Girl I can get it on my own I'm forever up
But I'd rather have you hold me down like Coretta does
Are you the type to stick around for whatever comes
I'm not no nigga you just found
I'm a one of one
Yes it might be some ups and downs
But I never run
It might be later might be now
But it's more to come
