

Bo Burnham, High School Party Girl

high school party, senior year boys and girls are all sippin' on beer i like soda, where's the soda? am i the only fucking person here that likes soda?

i see her from across the crowd except the party is bumpin' and the music is loud you're really drunk and you're lookin' sad ... it's like a date rape ad girl, then we start to dance and girl, baby this is romance girl, i'm startin' to grow down below shit, why did i wear sweat pants?

girl, you're body's like what conjunction junction that's a fine ass butt (but) i'm like a cashew in a lolly pop just keep suckin' till you get to the nut and i said let's rob and Asian kitchen or stroll down the block either way girl, we're takin' a wok (nothin'?) you're gonna love me the way my uncle did except you're not gonna go to court for doin' it be a guillotine or my girl instead either way you're givin' me head

I'm gonna love you, baby the right way shorty with a body lookin' hottie when i say girl when i say girl

we go into the bedroom exchanging nervous laughter why's it called dry humping, if i always need a towel after? you spread your naked legs and i see that wound that never healed even though you're yellin' for me, i can tell your lips are sealed we're both aware of my erection, you ask if i have protection

I say:

&quot;well no, i tried to buy them once i was in the convenience store my old babysitter walked in i had to hide them by the tic-tac's i was so embarrassed i peed myself a little bit&quot;

girl, girl

insert a euphemism
a sexy mental prism increase my pelvic rhythm fill you with my syllogism I know your body and i know how to please you don't thank me, thank Wikipedia guys don't go down, well i am what the fuck is that? i should have brought my diagram ooh ... did you feel that? that was an educated guess ooh ... did you feel that? uh, that one was a sneeze, that was my bad

high school party, senior year none of that happened 'cause i wasn't invited
