

Bob Carlisle, You Must Have Been An Angel

I was the lonely one inside
Seemed like my prayers had been denied I'd come to the decision to never find a love that's true
Down on my knees again, in prayer,
Oh lord, please send someone to care
My best imagination could not have dreamed someone like you
You must have been an angel, I can tell
By the heavenly way my heart fell
Oh, it was spiritual, a miracle
That an angel
Would fall in love with me
You've got that heart of gold, I swear
You are the answer to my prayer
And so much heavenly power to make a mortal dream come true
Oh you were heaven sent, I know
For even when lights are low
I can almost see, I see a halo
Girl I'm so in love with you
Girl, I'm so glad I found you Gonna wrap my whole world around you
Oh, It's gonna be so heavenly
Just you and me.....
