

Bob Catley, Blinded By A Lie

I ain't superstitious
I've been here before, I want to know
I can feel the spell I'm under
Just can't take no more, I want to know

There's a voice inside, won't leave me be Set me free, let me be

'Cause we're blinded by, blinded by a lie
So forgive our sins, we ain't about to cry

It's a crazy premonition
I've seen it all before, I got to know
I can feel the spell I'm under
Just won't take no more, I got to know

You're my voice inside, I can't break free
Let me be, come on, set me free

'Cause we're blinded by, blinded by a lie
So forgive our sins, we ain't about to cry
Blinded by, blinded by a lie
So forgive our sins, we never aimed so high

I'm chasing your shadows no more
I'm just fooling myself, nobody else
