

Bob Catley, Moment Of Truth

Got my back against the wall
I'll never give up hope at all
Can't find a reason, feeling tense
Caught in the middle of no common sense

Sleepless nights, time stands still
I fear the worst, pray it never will
Breathless moments, can I cope?
Seconds count, I pray for hope

This is more than I can take
Nothing left for you to break
Look to the sky, hear my cry

Compassion lies in a sea of hate
Faceless voices hold our fate
Ignorance is no excuse
No dignity in your abuse

This is more than I can take
Look to the sky, hear my cry

Well, it's the moment of truth
Feeling on fire, left only with thoughts of you
The moment of truth
Cling to my desire, waiting for you
It's the moment of truth
Feeling on fire, emotion runs deep for you
The moment of truth
Cling to my desire, waiting for you

Chase the hunger, feel the pain
Think I've finally gone insane
My body broken, still I refuse
Remain standing, I'll never loose

Sleepless nights, time stands still
I fear the worst, pray it never will
Breathless moments, can I cope?
Seconds count, I pray for hope

This is more then I can take
Look to the sky, hear my cry

Well, it's the moment of truth
Feeling on fire, left only with thoughts of you
The moment of truth
Cling to my desire, waiting for you
It's the moment of truth
Feeling on fire, emotion runs deep for you
The moment of truth
Cling to my desire, waiting for you
