

Bob Catley, Spirit Of Man

As the setting sun falls deep into the sea
We call across the land, preserve our history
The fight for freedom, love and liberty
The right to live our lives, alone and peacefully

Can you feel the rising in the air?
Pray our God is there
Stand together mountain tall
Until the last man falls

Can you hear the calling?
The spirit of man
A new day dawning
Our fathers' land

Shadows on the land hide echoes from the past
Our fight will never end but it can never last?
Peace and justice should be for one and all
Till that time arrives we'll answer to the call

Can you feel the rising in the air?
Pray our God is there
Stand together mountain tall
Until the last man falls

Can you hear the calling?
The spirit of man
A new day dawning
Our fathers' land
