

Bob Dylan, I'm A Rambler And A Gambler

Im a Rambler, I'm a Gambler, I'm a long way from my home
If the people don't like me they can leave me alone
Come sit down beside me, come sit down right here Come sit down, long as you want to Love will always be here

When we get to Wyoming
the letter you'll see
If you get in to trouble just you write and tell me

For I once had a lover, her age was sixteen

Shes the flower of Belton
And the rose of Saline

Her parents was against me
Now she is the same
If I'm writ on your book, love
Just you blot out my name

For theres changes in the ocean
Theres changes in the sea
Theres changes in my true love
There ain't no change in me
