

Bob Marley & The Wailers, There She Goes

There she goes with the pieces from my heart
There she goes and now my teardrops start
And 'ere I go once again
Tru deese loonely 'eartaches and pain
That's all remain all remain
Now I know love is a guessin' game
She goes with the pieces from my heart
There she goes and now my teardrops start
Who's gonna put back the pieces to my broken heart
Once again once again now I know this could be the end
And she gone with the pieces of my heart
There she goes and now my teardrops start
And here I go once again
Tru deese loonely 'eartaches and pains
That's all remain
Now I know this could be the end
She goes wid de pieces from my 'eart
There she goes and now my teardrops start
