Bob Mould, I Am Vision, I Am Sound

Give me something to believe in Give me reason give me space Give me somewhere I can run to Give me cause to leave this place

Yes I melted when I met you Yes I fell in right away Yes I come to you if you say Yes I will come today

You were light that killed the shadow You were love when I was down You were faith when I questioned everything I knew

I am what you always wanted I am what will make you whole I am standing right beside you I am vision I am sound

Give me something to believe in I am vision I am sound
