

Bob Sinclair, Kiss My Eyes

Over
Come over x4

In the dark the dance begins the night is starting to sway feel the beat of ecstasy inside your soul pumping hard
I make believe that love is real and lets us take control let's be dangerous if only for one moment

Come....and kiss my eyes
come....and kiss my eyes
over come we're overcome come we're overcome

Over
come over x4

In the dark the magic spins and we forget the day feel the rush of energy inside your soul one 2 one

I'll take a chance that love is here and love is all we know (we're watching one another) let's be dangerous live only for the moment

Come....and kiss my eyes
over come we're overcome
come we're overcome
come.....mmmmm
Come....and kiss my eyes
come.....come.....come....
