

Bob Welch, Fate Decides

Written by bob welch.

She is over there, that the one I mean
Yeah she really haunts me
Friend your lookin' strange, is there something wrong
Uh oh the truth is dawning
Guess you were her old man before I was your friend
Funny how fate plays another trick again....

(chorus)

Fate decides, totally

Fate decides, it ain't me
Fate decides, who do you love
The hand of fate decides....

It's amazing how the hand of fate revolves & your caught in the circle
If you're a real friend you'll never mind that I happened to love that girl
She's neither yours or mine
Part of the whole design
I got to take my chance
Cause when it's time it's time...

(repeat chorus)
