

Bobby Bare, You Can't Stop The Wild Wind From

You can't stop the wild wind from blowing
You can't stop the wild wind from blowing

Let us live just for tonight don't think of tomorrow
Any thoughts of loving me can only lead to sorrow
For soon I'll be going and you can't stop the wild wind from blowing
No you can't stop the wild wind from blowing

Wild and free I gotta be I've got to be going
And you can't stop the wild wind from blowing
You can't stop the wild wind from blowing

Your lips are soft your kisses sweet and in your arms I love you
I can give just part of me then move on I've just got to
Like a wild raging river you can't stop the water from flowing
And you can't stop the wild wind from blowing
Wild and free I gotta be I've got to be going...
