Bobby Brown, Baby, I Wanna Tell You Something

-BABY, I WANNA TELL YOU SOMETHING-

In one sense it's curiosity The rest is just formality I see that look in your eyes And your clever combinations Breaking young hearts Must be your occupation Checkin' my Swatch She was right on time She walked so hot hot hot Too sweet, a visual freat One look and I'd leave my feet Won't apologize for the way I feel She shook me up With the rock and reel I asked the girl If she was ready to ride Three seconds later She was by my side

**

Baby, wanna tell you something I'm the one you need Baby, wanna tell you something For you my heart bleeds

*

Baby, wanna tell you something The way we feel is not a sin Baby, wanna tell you something Just let the love begin

What you've got Is too hot to handle For the ordinary guy And try they must But with you they bite the dust It seems they like that certain style The night, baby, at our favorite spot She gave me a kiss That I never forgot I wasn't ready to turn in yet But she said nothin' more I would get So I guess I have to overwhelm you Pick a star in the sky And I'll send you Just grab my hand And let it shake And listen to my drum While it starts to break Break it down Break it down B.Brown. B.Brown My name is B.Brown. B.Brown

Jump on it
Flash B. is my name
King of Stage is my fame
I'm entertainin' on the mike
Known to be liked
My hair is naturally curly
The waves are jet black

And girls call me by the dozen
Sayin',"Flash come back"
Women rush me on the street
Sometimes i can't control it
It's part of my dream
So you know I really love it
And party people
If you wanna party with Bobby
Cause I am all right

I'm the one you need My heart bleeds

(*Repeat) (**Repeat) (*Repeat)

Baby, wanna tell you something I said let the love begin Let the love begin, baby