

Bobby Brown, Get Away

Chorus: i've got to get away (8x) i've got to get away

Spoken: aint nothin but the funk baby!

verse 1: i need a piece of mind im stressed out today its about that time to make that get away dealing with the people i deal with everyday got to find a place i can hide away so i can be away from the badness far from the noise and the darkness it's not too late, there's gotta be a way for me to escape all this nonsense (get away)

Chorus 4x

verse 2: they try to run my life but thats the way i live do what i wanna do cuz its my prerogative people always trippin about the things i say but im living for the future and im doing things my way so why does the world keep on doggin me i have to leave it all in mind cuz theres gotta be a way for me to escape all this nonsense (to get away)

rap: Yo, check the groove B's kicking a flow real smooth.
E double SS with some cess is a nessecity to move.
So hit it where ya fit in and let the rythm snatch ya.
Throw a good rhyme so watch whats coming at ya.
As i release another Brown batch of Jams that slam and you cant touch so scram i know you cram to understand who i am. damn by the way can i please get this dance lets not free lance cause im just getting started believe me that was nothing but a brown party thats on, going on and got it going on.
Bob and Ted'd rated number one so flow on it and if ur in the house, pump your fists and say ho, ho, ho!!
Ted bring me on back, bring me on back DANCE!!! (there it is, oow!!)

chorus 'til song ends
