

Bobby Gillespie, Jehnny Beth, Remember We We

Remember we were lovers?
It seems so long ago
Now love is just a memory
Old photographs will show

You never want to hold me
Or kiss anymore
We may sleep together
But really we're alone

Do you stand like this
Cos you too have been placed
At the Edge of a Cliff?
You saw the risk that you should take
But never did
Or do you stand like this
Cos life washed you out
And left nothing
But madness in your eyes
Madness in your eyes?

Feeling like i've lost you
Where did we go wrong?
Tell myself i can't live without you
Am i really not that strong?

And i a fool to still want you
After all that we've been through
We're martyrs in a marriage
In a war we're gonna lose

Do you stand like this
Cos you too have been placed
At the Edge of a Cliff?
You saw the risk that you should take
But never did
Or do you stand like this
Cos life washed you out
But madness in your eyes
Madness in your eye
