Can't believe you chose to start the night this way
We were just bout to go out
Then you said wait baby no sit down
Babygirl I jus knew right then
Something was wrong with ya
You said I can't be with ya
Then it started to feel like my heart jumped out my chest
Felt like I lost my breath
This is not how we're supposed to be, baby
The story has jus begun
We've only turn the page once
And trust me this is such a beautiful one, baby

[Chorus: x2]

You don't have to turn the page
I read the story
It ends with you and me
You don't have to walk away
The story will change
Baby please don't turn the page

[Hook: x2]

Don't turn, don't turn, don't
Baby, please don't turn the page

[Verse 2:]

No don't give it up
Try to believe what I'm seein in us
Don't front
Girl you know I can possibly be the one
And I know you might be
Stuck in the past but I
Wanna give you my heart
To make it all better
All he took you through
I would never do that to you
He made it so hard for me to love you
But I'm here now
How can I make it clear now
The story ain't over not now
I can't let you end this now baby

[Chorus:]

You don't have to turn the page
I read the story
It ends with you and me (Gu-u-urll)

[Bridge:]

As if it wasn't enough
I got the ring in my truck
I've been plannin' all week
To get on one knee
Baby this just ain't you
I know that he hurt you
And we're nothin' alike
I'll prove it all tonight
And you know I love you
And everything will be cool
And you'll say you love me
And forget all your pain
You know this is true
I'm doin' all this for you
So end of it all, you don't have to

[Chorus:]

You don't have to turn the page
I read the story (I read the story)
It ends with you and me (Ends with you and me)
