

Bobina, Lighthouse

So this is all
What it's coming to
No distance, close
To what I say and do

Promises I am keeping
Affairs of the heart I am feeling
How can it be?
You're the one that was meant for me

Little by little
I found my ease
When I was down
You brought me peace

Love of my life I am keeping
Truth of my heart, feeling
How can it be?
You're the one that was meant for me

Like a lighthouse in a storm
You show the way
You keep me warm
Like a compass showing north
All I know is the one thing
You to me are home

Like a lighthouse in a storm
You show the way
You keep me warm
Like a compass showing north
All I know is the one thing
You to me are home
