

Bobo in White Wooden Houses, Beg Your Heart

Outside it's cold
I'm walking down the road
Which changed a lot since I passed it
Here where now and then
A bright light shines
Was it a little while ago dark and grey
But as a woman is asking me
How are you? And I said I'm doing good
I can watch the way she looks
'Cause of all the bloody news
I know that I can't change a world
Which makes me sometimes feel so blue
But she couldn't know what I know
That I got you
I'm living on an island
Aside of the road
There are so many things in face of which
I'm helpless
I took you to the island
And you take me
Before the first kiss falls
I notice your touchy mouth
But as a woman is asking me
How are you? And i said I'm doing good
I can watch the way she looks
'Cause of all the bloody news
I know that I can't change a world
Which makes me sometimes so blue
But she couldn't know what I know
That I got you
I got you
