

Bobs, Plastic Or Paper

I got a bunch of bananas and a bottle of bleach
Five cans of cat food, a chicken, and a peach
I had enough trouble picking out all this food
I can't stand decisions, I think it's so rude
That you ask me if I want Plastic or Paper

I don't know...just a bag!

PLASTIC

Oh, plastic sounds OK, just put in a bag
and let me go home

PAPER

Or, well, maybe paper's better...I don't know how to make a decision about this...

Well, then the clerk, he says to me:

"Mr. Consumer, please pause to reflect
The choice that you make can have a global effect
On lumberjacks and turtles, politicians and fish
Would you like a paper bag, is that your wish?
On the other hand I offer a bag that won't leak
And besides, it's got handles!"

PLASTIC

Well, OK, give me a plastic bag, make it a plastic one

PAPER

OOOOh, no, maybe I'll have...Maybe...

Maybe a Paper Bag!

Yeah, it's such a big decision, I've got a bunch of a bananas
and a bottle of bleach,
and what am I gonna put it in...?
