

Bodyjar, Feel Better

Would it make you feel better
If i lied ?
Try to hide the truth inside.
If only i could tell you

Would it make you feel better
if i left ?
You thought of me as second best someone you knew from years ago

When everything you've ever known comes crashing down you feel alone
I sit and change the channels and complain

Would it work out ?
Would you come back ?
What if the empty feeling still remains?

Somewhere in time ?
When i see you ?
would it be close enough to feel the pain ?

Cuz i can hardly stand it what else can i do

Would it make you feel angry
If i confessed ?
To all the things i never said ?
Words i could never tell you.

If we just keep it simple
Let it rest ,
Maybe i wont be depressed
and your better of with out me.

When everything is touch and go
Your falling down, your feelin low and things are getting stranger everyday
