

Bodyjar, Fragile Happiness

Wastin' time
Just hopin' everything will go my way
Plans for makin' everything OK

I define
Systems black and white as what we have
And everything I've done is coloured grey

You've taken everything
And left me here with nothing
And I told you everything
And you left me here with nothin'
With nothin'

Wait in line
Just letting my self-anger redesign
Damned to be misunderstood again

As I decide
To represent myself but on your terms
Like giving you the gun to shoot me down

You've taken everything
Did I fuck up everything
You left me here with nothin'
With nothin'

You've taken everything
I owe you everything
One day of judgement
You've taken everything

Whoa-o-o
Whoa-o-o
Whoa-o-o
Whoa-o-o-o-o
