

Bodyjar, Is It A Lie?

You take
A simple part of history
And then you feed it back to me
I'm smart enough to know

We try
We're living under plastic skies
Reality personified
And everyone's the same

Is it a lie?
Living a lifetime is reverse
Is it all right?
Living a lifetime in reverse
Like nothings wrong and everything's ok

You watch
Images on movie screens
They contradict your memories
And everything you know

Deny
The stories that are never told
Now culture can be bought and sold
To anyone today
