

Bodyjar, Running Out Of Time

Sell your car to buy a boat
It's not that far away
It won't be long if I'm not wrong
We'll be dead or sailin' on

The countdown started years ago
The warning signs are here
And this is one, when the big one comes
I'll be safe in knowing fear

They couldn't touch me anyway
(they couldn't touch me anyway)
Can't sleep
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time
Can't sleep (can't sleep)
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time

Running out of time (x2)

Save yourself it's all in doubt
The world might end today
For everyone there's a lot gone wrong
Still we made it here today

It's all we really know for sure
It's all we've ever known
We're all part of the problem now
Only know what we've been shown

If paranoia keeps you sane
(if paranoia keeps you sane)
Can't sleep
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time
Can't sleep (can't sleep)
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time

Running out of time (x2)

They couldn't touch me anyway
(they couldn't touch me anyway)
Can't sleep
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time
Can't sleep (can't sleep)
Can't talk too
You know we're running out of time

Running out of time (x2)
