

Bodyrockers, You Got Me Singing

Hey
Spent so many lonely nights
Dreamin' how you did me wrong
I fall to the ground and I wake up

You could at least baby take me on Then maybe we could maybe make out
But the floor I picked myself up from
Is floating with dust and shit
Yeah, the break down ...

But I've been kicked before
And I've been shown the door
Mostly, it's not new to me
Say you do do do do do do etc.
do do do do do do etc.

I say yeah
You got me singin'
You got me singin'

Hey
So if you wanna ... open up your eyes
And see, down
Baby, baby, you will never be, girl
I'm just squattin' in your mixed up world
And that's the truth, that's the truth

Your poison letters and telegrams
Just go to show you don't give a damn
And I'll stand right back up
My soul is strong itself
I just don't want you as an enemy
Say you do do do do do do etc.

I say yeah

You got me singin'
You got me singin'

Hate the game, don't hate the player
Why don't you tell me what we do
Hate the game, don't hate the player
I know that it could be so hard on you

The hardest gig in the world
Is to be a musician's girl
I said the hardest gig in the world
Is to be a musician's, a musician's girl

You got me singin'
You got me singin'
do do do do do do etc
Hey
You got me singin'
do do do do do do etc
Hey
do do do do do do etc
You got me singin'
