

Boiler Room, See Through You

Can't understand why you thrive on your misery
You and your jealousy
Look at me now
You never imagined
I would be where I wanted to be

There is no way:
I would live your way

Whatchya want from me!?!
Whatchya take from me!?!
What ya, what ya
I can see through you

Can't understand why you tend to betray me
You and your unloyalty
Look at me now
You can't even fathom
I would be where I wanted to be

There's nothiog to say:
You want it this way
Whatchya want from me!?!
Whatchya take from me!?!
What ya, what ya
I can see through you

You can't find a way now
to live it down

Whatchya take from me!?!
What ya, what ya
I can see through you

There's no other, there's no other
to shake 'em down
There's no other, there's no other
to shake 'em down
There's no mother, there's no brother to take me down
There's no other

You can't find a way now
to live it down
You can't find a way to live it down
