

Bolshoi, Lindy's Party

cold streets, grey town, early morning, no-one around, lets steal milk from a closed door, we wont drink it, but thats not what we do it for, walking around like a run away kite these are the days of eternal nights, say you were laughing at something when i saw you the first time, such a model, what an actress, i must confess, i never thought that'd you'd be,
who you are doing what you do now, lindy's party, lindy's party we dont talk about what if,
lindy's party
cold streets, grey town, it's bound to ghetto bring you down, hey you, where you been lately? nothingy around, in stately style well your crew have changed but they still hang on every word they worship just the same
now you tell me i dont live in the real world say i wont ever understand well your hair's still red, you still got the same hands, who told you, you were a country girl (x2) well i know who it was say why do you look like you're in pain? why have your hands become house-trained?
cold streets, grey town, it's bound to ghetto bring you down, but i remember the way you used to use your eyes, i remember your eyes,
and your thighs, and your jet black tights you wore underneath your long blue shirt, you bought second hand to keep you dry on rainy nights so who told you, you were a country girl? who told you you were a country girl star-crossed lovers heading for disaster you took a lifetime on the morning after
lindy's party,
lindy's party
we dont talk about what if,
lindy's party, yeah
lindy's party, lindy's party
we dont talk about what if,
lindy's party
hey (lindys party underneath) i remember the way you used to use your eyes,
i remember your eyes,
underneath your long blue shirt,
who told you you were a country girl?
lindy's party
