Bolt Thrower, Overlord

A time for peace, a time for war Time moving onwards forever more A time to live, a time to die Hypocrisy, now denied - denied

Life

Blood flows cold Contempt overruns the soul draining deep inside The litany abide

Embraced the terror No place to hide Face the final judgment Compassion now slowly dies

Stripped of all sanity Installed a new reality Overlord supremacy Vengeance now implied

Embraced by terror No place to hide Face the final judgment Compassion now slowly dies

Now free from strain Existence drains away Fallen as the rain To be lost in life's pain

Now life slips through veins Can comprehension fit in? Now stretched beyond capacity Vengeance shall be mine
