

Bomb Factory, Exciter

My mind was smashed into pieces
But I don't want to give up these races
They walk on the line with equal spaces
I just wanna dive into the sea

Penny wise and pound foolish
I can't carry out your wish, I'm foolish
One misfortune follows another
Everyone has the bright future
Everything in my head is helter-skelter
I just wanted to be Exciter

A herd of domestic dog, cheap trick
Hide your drastic desire

I still stay there with a finger in my mouth
There goes the siren, ring in my head
Nobody is calling, nobody is answering
I just want to fly out from this boring world

Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter

What's up today? It's just a sunny day
I'm getting worse day by day
Being dragged down

I still stay there in the name of reason
I can't resign myself to my fate
Nobody is calling, nobody is answering
I just want to fly out of this boring world

Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
Use my Exciter, Blow up Exciter
