Bombay Bicycle Club, How Are You

She seemed like an alright girl And I was thinking just one night wont hurt And I remember saying to her I don't want to get much older. So Long So Long So Long Always seem to be on the run We haven't spoken in so long We can't get past the how are you We're not talking like we used to So Long So Long So Long Always seem to be on the run We haven't spoken in so long We can't get past the how are you We're not talking like we used to So Long So Long So Long
