

Bombshell Rocks, 20 Days

See another day
I try to kill the time, but this time it stays alive
You could say I'm a long distance caller 40 minutes action and ten hour drive

Some dreams come true
That's one thing I know
And girl, I've got 20 more days to go

I see another day
Same old situation but in a different place
I'm just a kid out on a mission
I look out thru the window and start dreaming away

Tonight I'll be alright
Yeah I'm gonna be okay
There's nothing standing in my way
When the night arrives
and the sun comes down to put a final ray of light on a dirty town

Tonight I'll be alright
Yeah I'm gonna be okay
There's nothing standing in my way
When the night arrives
and the sun comes down
you're gonna hear the sound
