

Bombshell Rocks, Begging For Mercy

the pattern i see it so clear the world shakes we're trembling in fear we've gone astray we've lost direction the world brakes down in tears broken homes broken dreams broken hearts is all i see i see a world down on its knees we're begging for mercy we're down on our knees
we've lost our beliefs
