

Bombshell Rocks, Radio Control

Do you wanna crawl like a maggot?
Inch by inch
Or move like a swallow?
Up in the air on spread wings

There's something about the way they're all moving

To me it looks as if they're radio controlled

There's a thief in the city stealing minds He'll break into your homes and make people go blind

Examine the picture
It's heavily distorted
And that two way line is broken
Out of order
