

Bombshell Rocks, Warpath

i'm on the warpath from here there's no turning back i've been away too long well i still feel so strong some are scared of being misfits i'm scared of fitting in well i try to take control i wanna be on top of things if i give it all things will remain well hard work is my middle name it's all i ever wanted
now give it to me again
well hard works my middle name
its all i ever wanted
i melt now give it to me again sometimes its tempting to do things the easy way but i never liked compromising i never looked for a cheap escape its always been a 100 100% or nothing
so this is where you'll find me i'll never run away
