Bon Iver, Wisconsin

You ride in the park and you're peeking Piss pools in your seat She's standing inside, but you surely repeat Oh, God, don't leave me here I will freeze till the end Love is love's reprieve

Winter is coming and you're stacking All your summer sheets Now when the wind blows you cover your teeth And our tool shed where you trade in your blues Love is love's sad news

That was Wisconsin that was yesterday Now I have nothing that I can keep 'Cause every place I go I take another place with me Love is love's mystique

You're up on the bar and you're shaking With every grimy word Who will you love What's love when you've hurt Wherever is your scene the snow kissed the curb Love is love's return

That was Wisconsin that was yesterday Now I have nothing that I can keep 'Cause every place I go I take another place with me Love is love's critique
