

Bon Jovi, Drift Away

Day after day I get more confused
Trying to see the light
In the morning rain
Going on a game
You have to lose
'Cause the feeling's changed
I won't lose again

CHORUS 1

Giving the people
As I pray my soul
I wanna get lost in rock'n'roll
And drift away

Sometimes I think
I've always been down
I don't understand the things I see
The world outside seems so unkind
So unkind
But I'm dependin' on you to let it
See me through

REPEAT CHORUS 1
