Bon Jovi, Flesh And Bone

They judge you by your money Or the color of your skin They read you by the cover Don't take time to read within They judge you without jury And you struggle to believe No one could hear your story Even justice had to leave

All I know (All we are is all alone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (All we are is all alone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)

They build the walls around you And they tell you you don't fit And still you think you know me You don't know the half of it I'm a beggar, you're a savior I'm your devil, you're a thief I'll be here until you realize I'm you and you are me

All that I know (All we are is all alone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (All we are is all alone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) All that I know (All we are is all alone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone) Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)

Do the cuts bleed any different On a pauper or a king? When it comes down to dying The crown don't mean a thing No, no, no

(All we are is all alone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (All we are is on all alone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)
(All we are is all alone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)
Man is made of flesh & amp; bone (Man is made of flesh & amp; bone)
